NORFOLK PLANS AMBITIOUS

BACKERS OF JAMESTOWN TRACK TO MAKE IT IMPORTANT RACING POINT.

Hope to Give Thirty Days of Racing Each Spring and Fall-Business Organizations of Norfolk Lend Aid to the Project.

Norfolk, Va., September 8.—The meeting which the Jamestown Jockey Club will conduct this fall from November 1 to 19 has aroused the enthusiasm of local people and strong efforts will be put forth to make this one of the places where horsemen may depend upon at least thirty days of racing each spring and fall.

The Jamestown meeting this fall will carry the indorsement of the Norfolk Board of Trade, Business Men's Association, the Industrial Commission and the Merchants' Association. These bodies compose all the best and most influential people of the city. The railroads and steamship companies have promised reduced rates from all points to Norfolk during the meeting, and the Merchants' Association proposes to put on a "trade excursion" to assist the jockey club in bringing the people from other cities in the state as well as from the Carolinas. All places of business will close at 1 o'clock on the opening day to give the local people a chance to go to the track and see the races and an avlation meet that will be held at the track that day.

Norfolk, with its suburbs, is a city of over 100,000 inhabitants, and is only five hours' ride distant from Washington, seven from Baltimore, nine from Philadelphia, and twelve hours from New York, it is a delightful trip by steamer from any of these points, and the fare is cheap. The steamship companies only charge $2 per head to ship horses from Baltimore to Norfolk, and they bring the attendants free.

The Plant at Norfolk consists of a fast mile

Baltimore to Norfolk, and they bring the attendants free.

The plant at Norfolk consists of a fast mile track, with good grandstand and stables, and abeautiful clubhouse. There is good street car service to the grandstand and a boulevard for automobiles and carriages. Norfolk is noted for its fine hotels, claiming to surpass any city of its size in the United States in this respect, as there are several line hotels built during the Jamestown Exposition, in addition to the many large hotels that have always been the city's pride.

The climate of Norfolk is delightful, the gulf stream making the winter mild and pleasant. Old reference in the confort, a notable winter resort, is only thirty minutes' ride from the race track. This would be as good a place as could be found anywhere to winter horses, and the management proposes this fall to arrange to take care of all who care to winter at this point. This is the last place where there will be racing in the east this fall, and it will be the first-place in the east to open next spring.

OLAMBALA SHIPPED TO MONTREAL.

Montreal, Que., September 8.—Never were prospects more promising for a successful session of racing at Blue Bonnets than for the meeting scheduled to open the coming Saturday and continue seven days. The flower of the horses in training in the east have gathered here to participate in the racing and sport of exceptionally good class is assured.

Two special trains arrived vectoral from Wind.

racing and sport of exceptionally good class is assured.

Two special trains arrived yesterday from Windsor with the pick of the horses that raced there and several carloads have come from Saratoga, including the pretentions strings of August Belmont and R. T. Wilson, Jr. Olambala is among the Wilson horses and is in condition to fill his engagements here. He was given light work this morning and his presence on the track aroused keen interest. The track is in first-class condition, this being the opinion of all the trainers who have arrived here. The steeplechase field was never better and the improvement made in the jumps is well thought of by owners and trainers. Among the prominent stables already housed at Blue Bonnets are those of James R. Keene, Mrs. L. A. Livingston, G. R. Tompkins, A. Henry Higginson, Capt. W. F. Presgrave and Thomas Clyde, Mike Daly, J. E. Seagram, R. F. Carman, Nat Ray, John Dyment, Jule Garson, A. Garson, S. A. Clopton, R. J. Mackenzie, W. Gwilson, August Belmont, R. T. Wilson, Jr., Brownleigh Park Stable, Courtland H. Smith, Earl Linnell, J. C. Baker, J. S. Ownbey, Harry Shannon, Barney Schreiber, John Shields, M. C. Pritchard, Thomas Rodrock, W. Waish, William Hogan, Bartlett McLennan, J. W. Schorr, Clint De Witt, R. D. William, William Walker, James McLaughlin, Jr., C. J. Mutray, G. E. Hall and J. H. Doane.

MORE RACING FOR VANCOUVER.

Vancouver, B. C., September 8.—The Vancouver Jockey Club, the oldest racing organization in British Columbia, is holding a seven-days meeting at Minoru Park, which it leased for the purpose from the British Columbia Thoroughbred Association, whose two meetings authorized under the Miller act have already been completed. The Vancouver Jockey Club was organized in February, 1896, when Vancouver was a city of only 10,600 inhabitants, and its first meetings were held on the Hastings race course, which subsequently was taken over by the city of Vancouver for provincial fair purposes, since which time the Vancouver Jockey Club has been without a home. The present meeting began last Saturday and will close next Saturday. The patronage has been excellent and it is planned to hold a second meeting October 1 to 8. Participating in the racing are many horses that recently raced in Montana, including Enfield, Fernando. Prejuicio, E. M. Fry, Royal Stone, Wistaria, Dorothy Ledgett, Titus II., Jessup Burn, Creston Boy, David Boland, La Petite, Minnedocia, Figent, Combury, Lyte Knight, Inclement, Frieze, Salpearl, Afternath, Senator Warner, Fredonia, Biased, Nebulosus, Silver Grain, Jack Paine and Endymion II. The officers of the Vancouver Jockey Club are as follows: Honorary president, Jonathan Miller; president, J. G. Woods, vice-president, A. E. Shelton: secretary-treasurer, E. Chevalier; racing' secretary, Robert F. Leighton. The racing officials include T. J. Wellman, presiding Judge; W. Fallahee, starter; P. Reilly, clerk of the scales; S. J. Rothert, timer and paddock judge; A. H. Reed, patrol judge.

LEXINGTON STABLES FAST FILLING.

Lexington, Ky., September 8.—With the arrival of the strings of Amos Turney, John S. Ward, T. P. Hayes, T. H. Stevens, Mode Nicoll, D. C. Cottle, P. J. Malone and James Robinson from Canada, there were 375 horses quartered at the Kentucky Association course this morning.

The stables of Woodford Clay, E. R. Bradley and others are yet due from the east and several more outfits are to come from Canada, Latonia and Louisville. The track was good until about 10 o'clock this morning, when rain began falling again. There was nothing out of the ordinary in the work-outs. James R. Keene's physicians say that there was some improvement in the millionaire turfman's condition today,

THIRTY LEADING MONEY-WINNING HORSES

The racing of 1910 is by no means over, but it is already settled that the greatest money winner of the year is a two-year-old. This is the third time that a horse of that age has led the money earners of the last five years. In 1906 the three-year-old, Accountant, was first with $183,570. In 1907 the grand two-year-old, Colin, led with $131,007. In 1908 the leader was the two-year-old, Sir Martin, with $78,590. Last year Sam Hildreth's three-year-old, Joe Madden, headed all competitors with $44,905. This year his two-year-old, Novelty, is far in advance with $72,630 already to his credit and there is no possibility of his being even closely approached. He is in the Matron Stakes at Pimlico, October 15, besides stakes at Louisville, and may increase his total before the year ends, although Mr. Hildreth is credited with having said that the colt's racing for this year is over. Sweep is second to Novelty, Olambala third, Dalmatian fourth, and then comes a procession of two-year-olds in the next seven places. To date the thirty leading money winners and their records are:

KINGSTON HEADS THE STALLION LIST FOR 1910

Last year Kingston's name did not appear in the list of twenty leading American sires. This year he is safely the leader through the prowess of one two-year-old son of transcendant merit. It is Kingston's second time of supreme distinction as a sire, he having led in 1900 with thirty-three winners of 110 races and $116.368. Kingston was a grand race horse and in the course of his long career was unplaced but twice in a total of 113 races. It was befitting that in his old age he should beget a son capable of again crowning him with the greatest measure of fame that can be gained by a stallion. Although there is much racing yet to be done before the year ends, there is not the faintest chance that his position in the lead will be threatened. It is impregnable.

At the end of last year Ben Brush was first and Woolsthorpe second. At present Ben Brush is third to Kingston and Hastings, and Woolsthorpe, now dead, is seventh in the list. The twenty leaders, and the correct aggregate earnings of their progeny up to and including August 31 are as follows:

ODOM STRING COMES! WEST

PRINCE GAL, FOLLIE LEVY AND OTHER GOOD RACERS REACH LOUISVILLE.

Horses Continue to Gather at Churchill Downs for Fall Meetings-Budget of Gossip from Kentucky Sources.

Louisville, Ky., September S.—George Odom arrived today at Churchill Downs and his twelve racers, including Prince Gal. Nimbus, Ben Lasca, Hesitate and Folle Levy, were assigned to stable A. on the south side of the enclosure. The horses shipped in good order from Saratoga.

Secretary Lyman H. Davis of the New Louisville Jockey Club received word today from George Ham that Donau, winner of this year's Kentucky Derby, recently gelded with the hope that his savage disposition might be improved, will be turned out on the farm of William Gerst in Tennessee and will not be raced until next year. Trainer Ham thinks that Donau will prove a high-class racer as a four-year-old. Donau is sound in wind and limb, but for sometime he had been displaying an ungovernable disposition and his trainer feared that the colt would become a man eater.

oid. Donau is sound in wind and limb, but for some time he had been displaying an ungovernable disposition and his trainer feared that the colt. would become a man eater.

Herman Kaiser has arrived at the Downs with Cull, He has been winning races in the 'bushes' with this horse and he will start the son of Uncommon at the state fair here next week to tighten him up for the fall meeting which opens here October 1.

Eddie Kaiser is a newcomer to the jockey ranks. He will, do lightweight riding on the Kentucky circuit this fall as a free lance. Jockey N. Kennedy in street attire now weighs but 110 pounds. He is in good condition and expects to do more riding this fall than heretofore.

When six horses arrive tomorrow from Latonia the string of twelve racers trained by Tom Hatfield will all be here. In this bunch is Edward Alvey's once speedy Colonel Bob. He is training well this fall and probably will again become a useful-horse. Henderson & Hogan have engaged stable room at Douglas Park for fifteen yearlings which the firm purchased in the east at various times.

George Lindenberger, official timer at Louisville and Latonia, has been spending his vacation attending the rural fairs in Kentucky and Indiana, and says he enjoyed himself more than in the seasons that he went to the mountains or the seasons that he went to the mountains or the seasons that he went to the mountains or the seasons that he went to the mountains or the seasons that he went to the mountains or the seasons had be appeared to a great admirer of fine stock of all descriptions. He will remain at home until the time to assume his duffea timer, saving the $10 per day paid for this service by accepting the courtesies of friendly horsemen who, to help the Kentucky Association along, do the work from day to day without pay.

Trainer A. L. Kirby declares that J. B. Respess has as fine a bunch of weanings this season as any breeder ever raised. The owner of Dick Wellessin view the selling of part of them at the coping sale in Lexington. He is likely Iroquois and South Louisvine nature of ages.

Jockey W. Knapp will come west for the Kentucky meetings.

Bowden Caldwell will again be seen in the saddle at the state fair this year in the gentlemen's cup race, which is attracting an unusual lot of attention. As yet Mr. Caldwell has not selected a horse to ride in the race, but he will be upon a good one and hopes to land the handsome silver cup which goes to the rider of the winner. Mr. Caldwell won the state fair event last year, but his friend, Mr. Plerce, beat him for the valuable cup hung up by the New Louisville Jockey Club last spring. The the New Louisville Jockey Club last spring. The latter will also have a mount in the state fair race.

BASHTI PREPARING FOR THE MATRON.

New York. September 8.—Thomas Welsh has received no word from Harry Payne Whitney as to when he wants Bashit shipped to Great Britain to begin work for the Epsom Oaks of 1911 and he will go ahead and get her ready for the filly end of the Matron Stakes to be run this fall at Pinlico. It is assumed that Mr. Whitney will want Bashit to fill her engagement at Pinlico. The filly end of the Matron will pay the winner about $7.500. Bashit has nothing to run for in England this fall and trying for such a prize is well worth while. If Bashit waits in this country for the filly end of the Matron, it is possible that Mr. Welsh may undertake the job of getting her to England. His stable was greatly reduced by the Newcastle sale at Saratoga, and it is his intention to take a trip abroad this fall.

Mr. Welsh took Adam, the sire of Bashit, with a bunch of the Millstream Stud hares to France two years ago, and sold them, and he liked what he saw abroad. But he had a big stable at Gravesend and he had to hurry home sooner than he liked. If he goes across the Atlantic after the Pinnlico meeting he will take a longer vacation.

Bashit is not the only filly Mr. Welsh will prepare for the Matron. Ogden Bishop's Handspring filly, Zillah, and the Woodhaven Stable's Five Aces are in his barn, and he will get them ready.

ANOTHER SHIPMENT TO FRANCE.

New York, September 8.—The American cross-country horses to be raced in France in the interest of Maleolm Faile and William C. Haves will be shipped on the American Transport liner, Minnetonka, saling from New York September 17. Rampart, the five-year-old bay gelding by St. Gatien—Fasaine, now stabled at Belmont Park, is the only horse in the shipment that has gained distinction. The remainder of the string will be made up of eleven young Virginia-bred horses selected on account of their conformation and action. They have been schooled, and in trials gave promise out of the ordinary. Rampart is regarded as the type of horse suitable for steeplechasing on French courses. He has had some stiff gallops recently, and is in excellent condition for the trip abroad. Last season the son of St. Gatien raced well at the meetings of the Westchester Racing Association and the Coney Island Joekey Club. At the course of the latter club during the autumn meeting he won the Inaugural, Great Antumn and Westbury Handicap steeplechases easily. Rampart was prepared and saddled for these events by Silas Veitch, one of the foremost handlers of steeplechasers in this country.—Mr. Hayes, who will condition and train the horses to be raced in the colors of Malcolm Faile, has been a prominent figure in this branch of the sport for many years.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Frederick Gebhard, who at one time figured promi-nently on the New York turf, died at Garden City, L. I., yesterday after an illness extending over a year or more.

year of more.

Damny Maher won the Champagne Stakes, one of the important fixtures at Doncaster, with Leopold de Rothschild's Pietri. The Duke of Portland's Wrinkler was second and J. B. Joel's Sunstar third, Andrew Blakeley has arrived at Sheepshead Bay from Saratoga with a stable of three or four horses, all that are left to him after the summer campaign.

Mr. Blakeley is preparing to ship to California for the winter.

the winter,

Jockey Arthur Pickens, who is now riding at Denver, was refused a license by the Pacific Jockey Club, according to a bulletin just issued, and also was turned down by the Kentucky Racing Commission when he applied for a jockey license last scelber.

The United Hunts, which will hold a two-days meeting November 8 and 12 at Belmont Park Terminal, aunonness that owners making entries on or before October 24, the time of closing, will receive free transportation for their horses from Baltimore to Queens and return.

TALK OF MATCH RACE AT DENVER.

Denver, Colo., September S.—W. T. Anderson is among the recent arrivals from the east. The horses that he raced at Saratoga are now stabled at Sheepshead Bay.

Sheepshead Bay.

There is some talk of a match race between Meadow and Orbicular, both thoroughbreds to carry their scale weight and the distance to be at a mile and an eighth.

J. J. Markien will ship his string to Ogden after the meeting here comes to a close.
